

THE FALL HOLIDAYS: LESSON PLANS, ART PROJECTS, AND ACTIVITIES

Linda Sonin

SESSION SUMMARY

This curriculum offers teachers the opportunity to learn simple art techniques and explore a variety of activities and resources that can be integrated immediately into their Fall Holiday lesson plans. Using this material, teachers will be ready to engage their students in fun and meaningful ways! Projects and resources are appropriate for educators working with students in grades 1-6.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Linda Sonin is Director of BJE Chicago's Marshall Jewish Learning Center and JTeach.org. A sought-after workshop leader, Sonin has served as an education director, art educator, and curriculum specialist. She holds an MA in Jewish Education and Jewish Communal Service and a BA in Religious Studies. She authored Celebrating Israel through the Arts and Walk the Talk: Jewish Values in Action.

linda@bjechicago.org

JTeach.org

Missed the workshop?

JTeach.org

Go to JTeach.org for innovative lessons, easy-to-follow art projects, special programming ideas and activities for the Tishrei holidays, and materials for professional learning.

For more information, contact Linda Sonin at Linda@bjechicago.org 847-291-7788 x1305
Board of Jewish Education of Metropolitan Chicago